WELCOME TO PARLARIITALIANO.IT

Parlare italiano is the first national observatory devoted to the study of Italian speech, which is now enriched by works on other languages. Parlare italiano presents a broad range of works in several areas of research and includes description levels based on corpora collected in a variety of communicative situations and differently annotated. Data and Tools sections offer numerous resources for the study of speech.

Read more...

All the material published on Parlare italiano is freely downloadable for scientific purposes.

Parlare italiano is based in the Department of Linguistic and Literary Studies of the University of Salerno and is funded also by the Ministero dell'Istruzione e della Ricerca.

Read more...

Parlare italiano aims to promote the scientific exchange and the publication of theoretical and applied research devoted to speech and spoken language, hosting proposals and works by an always higher number of researchers.